CONFIDENCE

We have been awarded with a 3 year contract from the city of Decatur for our non-profit to operate the theatre. The theatre is back on the upswing and we are confident in our future. The Princess will continue with our successful programs and will add new offerings which will propel the Princess to even new heights. We need your help now more than ever. We need to complete many upgrades which have been postponed far too long. Please consider joining us, not just for the benefits included in membership, but to be a partner in our rise to new heights. I assure you we will be great stewards of your donations.

~ Ellis B. Chenault, Chairman of the Board

MISSION STATEMENT

To present performing arts benefits, provide a multi-purpose rental facility for cultural activities, serve as an educational resource for the community, and preserve the building and its heritage.

AN EVENING WITH THE BLIND BOYS
OF ALABAMA

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 4 AT 7:30P

The Blind Boys of Alabama are recognized worldwide as living legends of gospel music. Celebrated by The National Endowment for the Arts and the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences (NARAS) with Lifetime Achievement Awards, inducted into the Gospel Music Hall of Fame, and winners of five Grammy® Awards, they have attained the highest levels of achievement in a career that spans over 60 years. The Blind Boys are known for crossing multiple musical boundaries with their remarkable interpretations of everything from traditional gospel favorites to contemporary spiritual material by songwriters such as Ben Harper, Eric Clapton, Prince and Tom Waits. They have appeared on recordings with Bonnie Raitt, Tom Waits, k.d. lang, Lou Reed, Peter Gabriel, Willie Nelson, Susan Tedeschi, Solomon Burke, Aaron Neville, Ben Harper and most recently Justin Vernon, Patty Griffin, Merrill Garbus and Sam Amidon on their latest recording I'll Find A Way. The Blind Boys of Alabama have made appearances on The Tonight Show With Jay Leno, Late Night with David Letterman, The Grammy® Awards, 60 Minutes, The Colbert Report and their own holiday special on PBS.

AN EVENING OF
LAUGHTER, TEAMWORK, & CREATIVITY WITH PLAYING BY AIR

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 18 AT 7:30P

Playing By Air Productions is founded with a mission of “Entertainment That Gives Back.” Our Social Enterprise business model provides free programs for the community supported by each event appearance. When a client books Playing By Air for corporate events, team building, and conferences, we provide free programs to children’s hospitals, schools, and non-profits in their community.

Our company has a long history of partnerships with hospitals and charities throughout the country, with an innovative approach to connect corporate clients, performing arts presenters, and local non-profit organizations. Programs such as the Creativity Moves Kids tour are a great way to expand your local impact.

JOHN PIZZARELLI

APRIL 1 AT 8:00P

John Pizzarelli, the world-renowned guitarist and singer, was hailed by the Boston Globe for “reinvigorating the Great American Songbook and re-popularizing jazz.” The Toronto Star pegged him as “the genial genius of the guitar.” And the Seattle Times saluted him as “a rare entertainer of the old school.”

Established as one of the prime contemporary interpreters of the Great American Songbook, Pizzarelli has expanded that repertoire by including the music of Joni Mitchell, Neil Young, Tom Waits, Antônio Carlos Jobim and Lennon-McCartney. His themed shows, often performed with his wife Jessica Molaskey, suggest there is no limit to Pizzarelli’s imagination or talent.
